

The TRCR would like to present Glenda Ferris with a Lifetime Service Award in recognition of her dedication and years of work in promoting and enabling environmental protection by the mining industry.

Public feedback motivates positive action, but public oversight suffers from a limited attention span and a lack of appetite in dealing with complex technical details.

For almost 45 years, Glenda has usually been the mine's only public reviewer.

Town of Smithers

Town of Houston

Equity Mine closed in 1994.
Present MLARD mitigation
cost is ~$3 million/yr.

Home of only local community member with sustained interest in mine

